

Church Guild, Fellowship Hear Attorneys Talk at Joint Dinner

A stimulating and informative evening was enjoyed recently when City Attorney Stanley E. Remelmeier and Fred W. Benson, prominent Redondo Beach attorney, were guest speakers at a combined meeting of the Seaside Community Church Women's Guild and Men's Fellowship.

Following a potluck dinner, the attorneys participated in a dialog on the subject of "Family Legal Documents." They talked about matters such as community property, property deeds, homesteading a adoption, wills and other family legal problems. Questions from the audience were encouraged through the discussion.

Prior to his appointment as City Attorney, Remelmeier worked as an attorney with a downtown Los Angeles law firm. He was graduated from Harvard Law School in 1948 with an L.L.B. degree; will receive his Master of Laws Degree from the University of Southern California in 1963; served as an instructor in law at Los Angeles City College from 1949 to 1956. He is a Lt. Colonel in the United States Army Reserve, having served as an artillery officer on active duty with the United States Army from 1940 to 1946, three years of which were spent in the European Theater of Operations.

Benson received his Bachelor's Degree in political science from Earlham College in Indiana in 1952; his Master's Degree in Business Administration from the University of Michigan in 1954; his L.L.B. Degree from the same university in 1957.

PICNIC BOUND—Mrs. Leo Dube, 218 West 226th St., Torrance, twin sons, Joe and Thomas, and sisters, Mona and Mary Ann, prepare for the South Bay Mothers of Twins annual picnic to be held Sunday, July 8, El Retiro Park.

Smash Hit, "Tears for a Rag Doll" Seen at Chapel Theatre

Another hit production is currently running at the Chapel Theatre, 4164 Pacific Coast Highway (behind Smith Brothers Fish Shanty), the powerful, sometimes disturbingly true - to - life, "Tears for a Rag Doll" by Oliver Crawford of Hollywood. Bob Bluman is directing the drama.

Brilliant performances are being given by Vikki Hoffman, Torrance, portraying the bewildered 13-year old who finds herself between childhood and womanhood in complete ignorance of her situation; Betsy Mackenzie, Redondo Beach, who plays Meg, the school teacher; David Violette, Hawthorne, the fumbling father and neglected husband; Ann Friedman, Manhattan Beach, who plays Grace, the disinterested, neurotic wife and mother who enjoys ill health and uses it as an excuse for her failings; Noel Shire, the teen-aged brother who tries to defend his sister; Helen Borst, Palos Verdes, who plays Aunt Lily; Lorraine Moir, Torrance, the gossiping neighbor; Helen; Curt Mobley, Gardena, Dave's Boss; and teenagers, Carolyn Schroeder, Jackie Washburn, and Linda McNeill.

Decorating the walls of the theatre's auditorium are paintings created by Louis Monza. His interpretations of the Mexican people and Navajo Indians have a peaceful, yet colorful quality. He has been in the South Bay area since 1947, and has exhibited his works widely throughout Southern California.

Reservations for the last two weekend performances may be made by calling the box office, FR 2-9636. Prices are $1.50 on Fridays and Sundays, and $1.75 on Saturdays. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m.

ROSES
The productivity of roses in late summer and fall is affected by the amount of water and feeding they receive now. The rose planting should never be allowed to dry out, for the practice of giving them a summer rest has long since been disproven.

Artist Creates Colored Chalk Drawings at Evening Service

Jesse Gutierrez will create with colorful chalk another outstanding drawing in the Evening Bible Hour—a time of song and inspiration in the Community Baptist Church of Torrance. Both the chalk drawing and the Sunday evening message will be on the theme "God's Tool Chest." Jesse Gutierrez is an exceptional Christian art student, having received many honors for his work.

"How Great Thou Art" was the title of this Sunday morning's message by the pastor, Rev. Richard C. Addison. This sermon was the first in a series of Sunday morning messages on the theme "What Is God Like?" Rev. Addison says, "What you think about God determines the way you live. Right thoughts about God are the keys to a satisfying life."

NATURAL COLOR

To retain the natural coloring of western red cedar siding, finish it with two coats of exterior stain especially mixed and blended to simulate the cedar's warm buckskin, beige. Two coats will last years. To renew color later, one coat will be sufficient. It can be applied directly over the old coats after having washed down the house walls.

Jury Court Space Added

Provisions for jury assembly quarters for the San Pedro Municipal Court was approved this week by the Board of Supervisors.

A motion authorizing lease of jury facilities was offered by Supervisor Burton W. Chace.

Lack of jury assembly rooms in San Pedro creates a serious court problem involving administration of justice under crowded conditions wherein jurors and litigants are crowded together in City Hall corridors, Chace said.

The board motion also authorizes renewal of existing lease for Municipal Court space in City Hall.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Do You Operate Under a Fictitious Firm Name?

- 1. Ques. What is a Fictitious Firm Name?
Ans. Any name which does not completely and clearly identify the owner or owners.
- 2. Ques. Why should an individual or partnership doing business under a Fictitious Name file and publish a Certificate?
Ans. 1. The law is specific and mandatory. Business people, like other persons, should obey the law. 2. No Court action of any sort can be maintained until Certificate is filed and published. Such filing and publishing contributes to the value and protection of a trade name.
- 3. Ques. Is the name "J. B. Smith Company" a fictitious name?
Ans. Yes. Because the term "company" is ambiguous and suggestive of uncertainty.
- 4. Ques. How can customer find out if he has filed and published his certificate of business?
Ans. Simply by checking with the Corporation department of your county clerk's office, or by telephoning Los Angeles Newspaper Service Bureau, Inc., MA 5-2541.
- 5. Ques. What does Section 2468 of the Civil Code mean by the wording that no person or partnership failing to comply shall maintain any action upon, or an account of, any contract or contracts made or transaction had, under such fictitious name in any Court of this State?
Ans. Simply that the person or partnership cannot sue.
- 6. Ques. Does that mean that cash stores are not affected?
Ans. There are many grounds for court action besides the mere collection of past due accounts. For instance, a cash grocery may wish to sue a trucking company for damage to shipments.
- 7. Ques. In case one partner is succeeded by another, must a new certificate be filed and published?
Ans. Yes. "Every person transacting business in this state under a fictitious name" must file and publish.
- 8. Ques. In case one partner is succeeded by another, must a new certificate be filed and published?
Ans. Yes. Section 2469 of the Civil Code states that "On every change in the members of a partnership transacting busi-
- 9. Ques. Must a corporation file and publish a certificate?
Ans. Yes, when the corporation as a person owns and operates some other business under a fictitious firm name. In such event it must file and publish, otherwise not.
- 10. Ques. Do public authorities demand compliance with the fictitious firm law?
Ans. Yes. For instance, the California State Department of Vocational Standards will not issue a license to any contractor or contracting partnership who has not filed and published.
- 11. Ques. May a person or person engaged in more than one business under fictitious name meet the publication requirements by filing and printing only one certificate?
Ans. The Los Angeles County Counsel has ruled: "We incline to opinion that the provisions of said section contemplate a certificate be filed and published for EACH fictitious name under which a business is transacted."
- 12. Ques. Does the filing and publication of a Trade Name Certificate have value in establishing owner's title in a firm name?
Ans. Yes, the courts have held such registration and publication to be a prima facie evidence of name ownership where two claimants to a name have contested ownership.
- 13. Ques. How may a Certificate be prepared, filed and published?
Ans. See your lawyer, bank, Torrance Press or the County Clerk.
- 14. Ques. What will it cost?
Ans. The statutory two dollar County Clerk fee for filing, plus the publisher's rate of $15 for four weekly insertions of the advertisement, amounting to a total of $17.
- 15. Ques. Where may filing service be obtained?
Ans. Complete service, forms and printed instructions is given FREE by the Torrance Press.
